

Hungry March Band Testimonials

The reviews are in...

"Ridiculously cool local 24 piece "marching band". This feisty bunch gets down with some monster grooves, New Orleans-like funeral & marching music, foot-stomping cartoon-like hilarity, post-klez and other ethnic music mayhem. A complete blast." -Bruce Gallanter Downtown Music Gallery, NY

"best anarchist parade group!" - Village Voice Best of NYC 2004

"hippest marching band ever!" - Public Radio Weekend

"Brooklyn phenomena the Hungry March Band...with the power of a Bourbon Street hurricane." - Dan Aquilante, New York Post

"...full of music that veers wildly...energetic..fun listening." - John Schaefer, WNYC - New Sounds and the people say....

"I love you. You are just like a movie, a John Waters movie!" -Fan, New Orleans -Mardi Gras Parade

"The Hungry March Band was more than a cavalcade of inspiration – I think it is safe to say that they were the glue, the frosting, the crucial tingling ingredient of the whole operation"- just a girl with friends

"Let them play!"-chanted by a jerring crowd of over 1000, Ludlow Street - Hell Night Oct 30th
-another crowd on steps of US Postal Service after Madison Square Garden Rally

"Harpo, you're just like the piped piper, if we let you go they'll all follow and it'll be a big uproar again." -NYC Police Officer

"A local senior citizen become so excited at the NAG parade, lead by the HMB, that he entered the band ring, threw down his walker, and began dancing the Charleston!" -Eye in the Pie Local
